In order for notification by phone to constitute a valid notice under these terms and conditions, you must note and keep a record of the time, date and person you spoke to and promptly confirm your notice to us in writing. If you have validly notified us in accordance with these terms and conditions that you believe a Card has been lost or stolen or used for an unauthorised transaction or a renewal Card has not been received:

You will promptly and carefully examine your account transaction information to ensure that all transactions have been properly and correctly recorded. We may also, at any time, demand immediate payment of any charge made to the Account by sending a written demand to you. If we do this, the amount demanded becomes immediately due for payment. You may pay amounts to us by direct debit or, if we have consented, by direct credit or credit card. We do not accept cash payments. Payments made after 3pm (Melbourne time) on a Business Day or on a day that is not a Business Day will be treated as if made on the following Business Day. We may, at our discretion, accept late or part payments or a payment described as being in full or in settlement of a dispute. Our agreement to do so does not constitute a waiver of any of our rights under these terms and conditions or at law and does not mean we agree to a variation to these terms and conditions. We accept no responsibility in respect of payments sent to us by post or payments made to other persons for transmission to us. All payments are at your risk until received by us. If we receive a payment instrument from you or from another person on your behalf which is not honoured in full for any reason, you are liable to pay us the dishonoured payment fee, the dishonoured amount plus our reasonable collection costs and legal fees.
